

NED GELFARS

Comedy • Juggling • Circus Arts

Ned Gelfars is an extremely funny guy. Audiences laugh out loud at his show full of juggling, magic, unicycling, and an incredible amount of hilarious, good-natured audience participation.

It's a great way to add fun to the school year in an assembly program or for special events and Field Days.

Ned's verbal comedy is as sharp as his circus skills, so adults (and teachers) laugh as hard as the kids, making it a great choice for evening programs and family shows. Everybody laughs.

Any age, any size audience.

Not just for little kids
Ned's stand-up comic style wit,
along with his amazing physical skills,
make him a hit with the hard to entertain Middle School audiences.
